Dear Jack,

First Step's 40th Anniversary Celebration was a highlight of our year. Thank you so much for lending your support to this event and learning more about how First Step "changes lives and saves families."

As we launch Building the Possibilities: The Campaign for First Step, we are proud of our history and confident that our new Residential Center will define our service to the community in the coming years. I have enclosed a campaign brochure - please call me at 552-2476 if you would like to learn more about the project or to discuss on how you can join in our efforts.

On behalf of First Step and the clients we serve, please accept my thanks.

Sincerely,

Donna Wolski
Vice President of Development

Jack - Thanks so much for bridging your support to our 40th Anniversary. you and your team are a big part of our success.
