Dear Mr. Cox:

Treasurer
Ward Dement

You have made a difference in the lives of children and families today. The three strider bikes gifted to them from the Strider World Championship Event will be a great addition for their playtime. Thank you for your continued and meaningful support to our programs and services.

Secretary
Mary Mapp

These in-kind gifts, along with the investment your foundation makes to The Florida Center enhances specific services necessary to foster healthy growth and development for these young children, and it strengthens our mission to Build Strong Families...One Child at a Time.
